

Visiting Devonport for your Conference

Devonport, a laid-back coastal city has plenty to offer visitors. Beyond the conference, attendees can explore beautiful beaches, coastal and bush trails, and immerse themselves in a thriving food and arts scene. Stretch your legs on a wander along the beach or up to the candy-striped lighthouse. Bring your bike and try out the new coastal pathway or test your skills on world-renown mountain bike trails. For those with time to spare, the world heritage sites of Cradle Mountain and Tarkine are a short scenic drive away, offering breathtaking landscapes and natural wonders.
